The Brunswick Academy Tradition

2017-2018

Class of 2018

Brunswick Academy Theatre

In April 2018, Brunswick Academy Theatre, under the direction of Mr. Kenny Warf, presented the musical "Irvin Berlin's White Christmas" based on the Bing Crosby movie of the same name featuring the beloved Christmas tune. The Cast and crew did not disappoint and put on another fabulous production. Their hard work and dedication shown through in this great show.

From The Board Room by Franklin D. Myers, Board Chair

We are excited for the new school year to begin as many changes have been made at Brunswick Academy. The school has addressed many of your concerns and we are all looking forward to the future. Many hours have been spent by the faculty and staff on these changes and the Board is very appreciative of their hard work.

The Board has started the search for a new Head of School. We are compiling a list of candidates and have had a few interviews. At this time, we are still in the early stages of this process. As the search continues, Mrs. Deborah Owen will remain as Interim Head of School. Her years of experience at Brunswick Academy have given us steady, reliable leadership. This leadership is important as Brunswick Academy moves forward with changes in curriculum, faculty and the Student Handbook. We hope that you will join with us to make the 55th session of Brunswick Academy a great one!

B.A. 6th Grader Makes It to Semi-Finals on Food Network

NEW YORK/PRNewswire/ - Food Network celebrated the New Year in a big way as Valerie Bertinelli and Duff Goldman challenged the skills of a dozen young bakers with major talent on a new season of Kids Baking Championship, which premiered on Monday, January 1 at 9pm ET/PT. Over the course of ten episodes, the contestants (ranging in age from 10 to 13) compete in decadent dessert challenges designed to find the most impressive and creative kid baker in the country. To make it to the top tier of the competition, their baking skills and originality must measure up, as they whip up sweet treats such as cookies, ice cream, and doughnuts. Only one would take the cake and the sweet grand prize of $25,000, a feature in Food Network Magazine, and the title of Kids Baking Champion!

During the 10-episode season, the kid contestants had to tackle new confectionary challenges, from sweet dessert pizzas using traditional savory pizza toppings, to out-of-this-world desserts with freeze-dried astronaut approved ingredients, and to a new twist on the popular imposter dessert challenge featuring lunchbox favorites. Monday, March 5 at 9pm ET/PT, the championship culminated as one talented baker rose to the top in the grand finale.

Kids Baking Championship contestants included: Gareth Bennett (Gaithersburg, MD; age 10), Julia Betz (Key Biscayne, FL; age 12), Alex Czajka (Edmonton, AB; age 12), Beverly Hepler (Foster City, CA; age 10), Grady Holloway (Chesterfield, MO; age 11), Luke Jonsson (Rancho Santa Margarita, CA; age 13), Linsey Lam (Closter, NJ; age 13), Abby Martin (Franklin, WI; age 13), Bryn Montgomery (South Hill, VA; age 11), Aditya Pillutla (Cary, NC; age 12), Michael Platt (Bowie, MD; age 11) and Soleil Thomas (Livingston, NJ; age 12).

Bryn is the daughter of Vin and Ann Jones Montgomery (Class of '90) of South Hill.

Congratulations to Brian Poarch (Class of '90) on being inducted into the Richard Bland College Athletics Hall of Fame on January 20, 2018. Poarch is Richard Bland's fifth class inductee and was a member of the men's basketball team from 1990-1992.

They say "Once a Viking, always a Viking." This statement is certainly true for this group of 7 friends that graduated from BA in 1985. For the last 30+ years, they have made an effort to meet every year or so for a mini reunion. They've been friends for the most part for 40 or more years and share a bond no time or distance can sever. This year, the group turned 50 and celebrated in style in November by spending 5 days in Montego Bay, Jamaica. They were given a keepsake by Tracey Owen that said "BA Girls-Best in the World." The group is spread out all over the state of Virginia as well as South Carolina.

Brunswick
Academy
Brick Campaign

The foundation has been set -
Let's pave our way to the future!

We are excited to announce that Brunswick Academy will be doing a brick campaign fundraiser!!! The personalized bricks will be $250 each and will be a permanent mark on our campus. The vision of this project is to build a patio between the B.A. Gymnasium and Lower School adding picnic tables to allow for an outdoor eating space, outside instructional space, and a great gathering spot during Homecoming activities. With the purchase of a brick, you can honor your child or grandchild, remember a loved one, honor a classmate, show your Viking pride as an Alumni, or promote your business. This will be a beautiful addition to our campus that will pave our way to the future!

(More details to come later in a separate informational flyer.)

2017 Homecoming

Brunswick Academy held their Homecoming 2017 on Friday, October 13, 2017. It was great to see a large crowd full of Alumni, Patrons, Grandparents, Students, and friends. Our BA Vikings won 63-19 against the Grace Christian Warriors. The Homecoming Court was announced at halftime and the Homecoming Queen crowned.
