Novel Report Format (to be used during the year)

1. Title, Author, Original Publication Date
2. Authorial Background (include reasons for writing the book)
3. Literary Period (refer to the LITERARY period NOT THE SAME THING AS THE WHEN IT WAS WRITTEN, like the 1920's, etc.) Refer to other authors writing in the same period.
4. Setting
5. Character Sketch of ONE character (describe and analyze using literary terms)
6. Unique Literary Devices Used By the Author (for example: symbolism, allusion, flashback, etc.)
7. Point of View

All novel reports are to be written in paragraph form in MLA format. Research is required for #1, #2, #3 and #6, which means you are to use in-text citations and have a works cited page. All reports are to be typed in 12 pt. font, Times New Roman and double-spaced. All reports must also be placed in a folder.

There are no acceptable excuses for late work. Manage your time and do not wait until the last minute. I do not want to hear that your computer or printer would not work, that your printer ran out of ink, or that you do not have a computer and, therefore, had to wait for your best friend to finish his/her report before you could type yours.

Cliff's Notes or Spark Notes (or any other study aid) or on-line study sites such as pinkmonkey, sparknotes, enotes, bookrags, etc., are not acceptable replacements for the original book or as reference sources.

For each day that a report is late, eight points will be deducted from the final grade of the paper.
