2023-2024 Reading List

Required Reading: The Pearl - John Steinbeck

You will have a test on your required reading the first week of school. After the novel report format has been discussed in class, a novel report on The Pearl will be due the first six weeks.

Please choose a novel that you have not read previously for your second selection as you will be assessed on it as well. You will have novel reports due several times throughout the year.

Strongly Suggested Reading:

Greenberg, Michael Painless Study Techniques

The following will be explained and discussed in detail during the first six weeks:

Novel Report Format (to be used during the school year)

1. Title, Author, Original Publication Date
2. Authorial Background (include reasons for writing the book)
3. Literary Period (not the same thing as date when novel was written) & other authors of the same literary period
4. Setting
5. Character Sketch (of ONE character - describe and analyze using literary terms)
6. Unique Literary Devices Used by the Author - for example, symbolism, allusions, flashbacks, etc.

All novel reports are to be written in paragraph form in MLA format. Research is required for #1, #2 #3, and #6 above, and in-text citations are required for #1, #2, #3 and #6 as well. This means you must have a works cited page.

All reports are to be typed in Times New Roman in 12 pt. font and double-spaced and placed in a folder. Papers will not be accepted unless they are in a folder.

There are no acceptable excuses for late work. Manage your time and do not wait until the last minute. I do not want to hear that your computer or printer would not work, that your printer ran out of ink, or that you do not have a computer and, therefore, had to wait for your best friend to finish his/her report before you could type yours.

Cliff's Notes (or any other study aid) or on-line study sites such as pinkmonkey, sparknotes, enotes, bookrags, etc., are not acceptable replacements for the original book or as reference sources.
